JUROR QUESTIONNAIRE
PRELIMINARY INSTRUCTIONS

As Judge O'Toole explained to you, the purpose of this questionnaire is to help the judge and the lawyers pick a fair and impartial jury. It is not a test. There are no "right" or "wrong" answers. You do not need to know anything about the law to fill it out. You just need to answer the questions completely and honestly.

Your questionnaire answers will be kept confidential. They will be seen only by the judge, the parties, and their assistants. Please answer the questions as candidly as possible. For this process to work, it is important that you are completely truthful about your actual views and opinions. Everyone involved in this process is relying on what you say. We are genuinely interested in what you think. It will not help if you give answers that are "politically correct" or reflect what you think we want to hear or what a "good" juror should say. You took an oath to give truthful answers, and we are relying on you to honor that oath and be honest.

We understand that no one's memory is perfect and that people filling out questionnaires sometimes make mistakes. Don't worry about that. Just do your honest best. Please do not leave any question unanswered. If you are not sure whether a question applies to you, please assume it does and answer it. If you do not understand any question or do not know the answer (or if you are just unsure), please write "I do not understand," or "I do not know," or "I'm not sure." If you need assistance in completing the questionnaire, please ask only the court staff for help. If you need additional space for your responses, please use the pages provided at the end of the questionnaire.

Starting now, it is important that your only information about this case come from the Court and the parties -- not from family, friends, news media, or social media. So please remember and follow these rules:

The following is a summary of the facts of this case. Please read it carefully and answer the questions that follow.

On Monday, April 15, 2013, two bombs exploded on Boylston Street in Boston near the Boston Marathon finish line. The explosions killed Krystle Marie Campbell (29), Lingzi Lu (23), and Martin Richard (8), and injured hundreds of others. Four days later, on Thursday, April 18, 2013, at approximately 10:30 p.m., MIT Police Officer Sean Collier (26) was shot to death in his police car near the corner of Main Street and Vassar Street in Cambridge. Approximately 90 minutes later, a man named Dun Meng called the police from a gas station on Memorial Drive in Cambridge; he said that two men had carjacked him in Boston, kidnapped and robbed him, and still had his car. Approximately 20 minutes after that, two men in Watertown had a confrontation with police near the intersection of Laurel Street and Dexter Avenue in which shots were fired and bombs were thrown. One of the men, Tamerlan Tsarnaev, was injured at the scene and died shortly thereafter. The other, Dzhokhar Tsarnaev, was captured some 15 hours later after he was found hiding in a boat in Watertown.

Dzhokhar Tsarnaev has been charged with various crimes arising out of these events. Mr. Tsarnaev was raised in Cambridge and attended Rindge and Latin High School. At the time he is alleged to have committed the crimes, he was a 19 year-old student at UMass-Dartmouth.
